ABOUT ANGEL CITY CHORALE

Celebrating 25 Years as one of the premiere choral groups in Southern California, Angel City Chorale (ACC) reflects the spirit and diversity of Los Angeles in its membership, its music, and its outreach activities. Equally committed to good music and good deeds, the chorale is dedicated to “Building Community One Song at a Time.” Renowned Artistic Director Fink founded ACC at the world-famous McCabe’s Guitar Shop in 1993 with 18 singers. ACC has now grown to over 170 talented and dedicated singers who present a broad and eclectic repertoire including classical, gospel, jazz, pop and world music.

Most recently, Angel City Chorale competed on NBC’s top-rated talent competition America’s Got Talent. Hailed by Simon Cowell as “one of the best choirs we’ve ever had,” ACC earned the coveted Golden Buzzer and reached the Semi-Finals, touching nearly 20 million viewers with their rich sound and compelling message of unity and diversity.

ACC has also performed at venues throughout Los Angeles, including the Walt Disney Concert Hall, the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, the Kodak Theater, and the Nokia Theater at LA Live. The choir has appeared on national and local television, and worked with artists such as Stevie Wonder, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Luther Vandross, and Natasha Bedingfield.

ACC is proudest of its ongoing commitment to the Los Angeles community. Through the gift of song, donations, and volunteerism, the group supports several Los Angeles non-profit organizations serving those in the community who need it most. Central to ACC’s mission is its annual Holiday Tour of Hope program. Over the past 15 years, ACC has taken its holiday concert repertoire directly to more than 30 service organizations in Los Angeles. In addition to the gift of music, ACC donates food, personal items, clothing, and supplies to these organizations.

Angel City Chorale is a California Non-Profit Public Benefit Corporation and 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.
